I-LI ESTABLISHES CCP COMMITTEE

Kuldja -- Ceremonies for the formal establishment of the I-11 CCP Committee and the graduation of the first class of the regional cadre training group were conducted in the Hsin-meng clubhouse on 24 April 1950.

Those present included: Tun Hsing-yun (1) [numbers refer to appended characters], secretary of the T'li--T'a-ch'eng--A-k'o-su District Party Committee and concurrently political commissar of the Fifth Army; Lieh Sau-k'ien (2), commanding general of the Fifth Army; K'a-yu-mu-po-k'e (3), special commissioner; Wu-szu-man-tzu-ya (4), T'li district chairman of the Hsin-meng; Huang Chi-fu (5), political commissar of the 50th Regiment.

Liu Kuang-han (6), secretary of the regional committee, addressed the group and stressed the need for improving the administration and for closer relations between the government and the people. He pointed out the following tasks for the future: (a) People's delegates conferences of all races and all circles must be held during May in such cities as Kuldja, and in such hsien as Sui-ting, I-ning, and Kung-liu. After sufficient experience has been gained through meetings in these areas, conferences will be held throughout the district during June and July. (b) organize the workers, farmers, youth, and women, etc. Improve village administration and bring about a people's democratic rule. (c) Build up Party organization so that Party policies will be carried out and regulations of the people's government will be thoroughly disseminated and followed. (d) Expand the united front, unify the people, build up the strength of the masses so that obstacles to the progress of the people can be eliminated. (e) Organize cadre classes in the I-li district, thoroughly improve the liaison between cadres and the masses and develop the attitude of service to the masses in the cadres.

Liu announced that the following had been appointed district committee members: Ai-ssu-ha-t'i (7), Wu-ssu-man-tzu-ya, Huang Chi-fu, Yin Te-sheng (8), Shao Chung-lin (9), Yang T'ung-t'ai (10). Hsieh Chi-hsiang (11) was appointed head of the organization department, Wang Ying-huan (12), head of the propaganda department, and Ha-mi-t'i (13) chief clerk.

Lieh Ssu-k'ien, commanding general of the Fifth Army addressed the group. He said that although the KMT has been chased out of the I-li--T'a-ch'eng--A-k'o-su area, there are still some feudalistic elements remaining. The feudalistic landlords are still oppressing over 90 percent of the people of the various races in this region. Hereafter, the special office will, under the guidance of the Party, handle all activities [dealing with the elimination of the feudalistic elements].

Chairman Wu-ssu-man-tzu-ya of the Hsin-meng I-li District also addressed the group and admitted that the Hsin-meng had, in the past, made many mistakes which should be criticized. He further stated that under the direction of the CCP, the Hsin-meng must carry out firmly the duties assigned by the Party and aid in overthrowing the feudal elements.
